North High Lights
By ROSALIE MURRAY

North High has racked up some great statistics, football-wise, this year. Our Bees and Varsity both tied for first place after trouncing the Beverly Hills squads soundly last week by fabulous scores. Also, the NHS Cees, while not in League competition, were undefeated this season. The teams played some terrific ball, and we are, of course, very very proud of them!

Proving the fighting spirit they are made of, the Saxons captured the coveted Pioneer League Sportsmanship Trophy by out-cheering every other school in the League at Varsity football games. Worked on a points system, the tabulation of sportsmanlike conduct of the two participating schools is conducted at every League game. North High outscored her opponents at all games this season, and thus will possess the Trophy this year.

Senior Success

Saxon dramatics were rewarded with warm applause as the curtains drew to a close for the last time on the Senior play, "Arsenic and Old Lace." Cast and crew combined to make up a truly enjoyable evening and audiences left the North High auditorium lauding the fine performance. Also a great financial success the play's proceeds will cut Senior dues considerably.

Students will see the gym transformed into a spectacular "Winter Wonderland" at this year's winter formal, "Stardust and Snowflakes," as they dance to the dreamy rhythms of the Continentals, a twelve-piece orchestra. Held December 5 from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., the affair, annually sponsored by the Girls' League, will be highlighted by entertainment and refreshments under the chairmanship of Girls' League Proxy Margaret Owen.

Next Monday, aspiring Saxon politicians will take out ASB and class office applications in preparation for the coming January student body elections. Each applicant must obtain the approving signature of all his teachers and twenty Saxons on this form in order to run for office.

That's all from the Saxon typewriter this week—be looking for you next time.
